2011

Welcome from the Mayor of Logan City

On behalf of Logan City Council, I am delighted to welcome you to our Logan Entertainment Centre and the fantastic array of shows on offer during the first part of 2011.

Logan Entertainment Centre, with its auditorium capable of seating more than 600 people, promises to showcase a diverse range of national and international musical performances and artists this year.

The Logan Entertainment Centre Show Guide provides a brief overview of the many exciting shows we have lined up for you. The guide also highlights the dates and times each show will take to the stage and admission prices.

I extend a warm welcome to each and every one of you and, on behalf of the people of Logan, hope you have an experience to remember.

Cr Pam Parker
Mayor of Logan City

Logan Entertainment Centre and Logan Community Venues are owned and operated by Logan City Council, providing quality facilities for their community and visitors.

TERRAPIN
PUPPET THEATRE

The Look of Love starring Jackie Love

WEDNESDAY 27 APRIL

A wonderful trip down memory lane with Australia's international leading lady of TV, musical theatre and stage. With a song in her heart, Jackie Love remembers the songs that filled our days, shaped our lives through the years and provided the musical canvas to our life of love. Sing along and remember how love looked with songs such as We'll Meet Again, Sentimental Journey, As Time Goes By, and It's Now Or Never.

Piaf from the Heart starring Margy Rose

TUESDAY 17 MAY

An 'ephemeral work of art' is how Robyn Archer, cabaret legend, has described the voice of Margy Rose in her renditions of the songs of Edith Piaf. Enjoy the classic La Vie en Rose, experience the 'earthy' Paris of La Foule, immerse yourself in the emotive Non, Je Ne Regrette Rien and Autumn Leaves as Margy takes you on a journey to pay tribute to "The Little Sparrow", Edith Piaf – legendary French chanteuse.

Barry Crocker's 'Banjo'

TUESDAY 5 JULY

Barry Crocker is correctly regarded as one of the "greats" in the Australian entertainment industry. In this musical play many of the significant Banjo Paterson poems will be performed, along with ballads from his collection of old bush songs from the book by the same name.
