CIRCA

THE WORLD PREMIERE OF WOLFGANG BY CIRCA

To his mother, he is Wolfgang.
To those who are watching, he is Mozart.

Straight from the score and onto the stage, the man known as Mozart appears amidst a puff of powder, wigged and ready to throw musical madness into a crescendo of dives, swoops and twirls.
Featuring mischievous acrobats and a musician, Wolfgang reinvents the composer's magical music with a circus twist.

Experience the latest family-friendly production from Circa, featuring a fusion of circus, movement and music. Watch as the notes are physically lifted off the page as performers bring the renowned compositions to life amidst a storm of powder, tumbles and crashes, all under the eccentric swirl of the conductor's baton.

ARJ BARKER

WE NEED TO TALK

Hey, you got an hour? Look, I've been doing a ton of thinking about us, and where we're headed. This isn't easy, but I need to be 100% honest with you, even if what I say makes you laugh, very, very hard.

You had better sit down for this.

Australia's adopted son of comedy returns to Logan with his brand new show We Need To Talk.

"A must see for anyone who loves a laugh." - Adelaide Now

"On-point delivery and irresistible charm, it's clear to see why his shows continue to sell out." - Herald Sun

ROSS NOBLE

EL HABLADOR

Who is El Hablador?

It's Ross Noble.

No, but who is the one they call El Hablador? I just said, it is Ross Noble. You know? Long hair, does stand up where he dances about the stage, spinning out all the nonsense in his head into a show.

But what is the legend of El Hablador? I don't think it's a thing. It's clearly Ross coming up with a name for his show, so he can make out like he is some sort of mysterious shadowy figure.

Ok I get it.

Book now to see the one they call El Hablador*.

SUNGLASSES AT NIGHT

STARRING GERALDINE QUINN

The 1980s wasn't all parties, rah-rah skirts and side-ponytails. It was the Cold War, Chernobyl, the Berlin Wall and the best "poncing about" in pop music history.

Enter a world of artsy, decadent 80s pop music excess, as your host Geraldine Quinn, gives you a crash course in apocalyptic 80s—inviting you to sing along to gloriously pretentious hits of the era.

Inflate those luft balloons and pout to the tunes of Ultravox, Spandau Ballet, Bonnie Tyler, Pat Benatar, Duran Duran - and many more - as Geraldine Quinn digs through this fabulous era to present a loving, parodic, hilarious and exotic interactive cabaret like none other.

PRIZE FIGHTER

BY FUTURE D. FIDEL

Get ringside for a rare theatrical combo: engrossing storytelling paired with the visceral thrill of live boxing.

Fleeing the Congo as a child, playwright Future D. Fidel lived in a Tanzanian refugee camp for eight years before being granted refugee status in Australia. Prize Fighter is inspired by his own story and those of the people he has known.

Prize Fighter is adrenaline-pumping, full-contact theatre at its best.

Sopranos must die; it's the rule of opera. Death By Soprano satirically catalogues operatic death scenes in an A-Z cabaret romp through Operatic Occupational Hazards.

It has an impressive set of pipes, outlandish props and costumes—and a higher death toll than a Hollywood Blockbuster.
