LIVE MUSIC

Tim Freedman's Moonlit Deck

Friday 2 May, 7:30 pm

After the sold-out success of the Love This City 25 Years tour in 2024, Tim Freedman is ready to strip things back, have a chat, and get his cabaret on.

Tim will take you on a journey through his repertoire, gently recount some new tales from his adventures in showbiz, and reveal untold stories about the genesis of the best known Whitlams songs. With a sure hand he will guide you through the highlights of his nine-album catalogue with songs such as Blow Up the Pokies and No Aphrodisiac.

Ticket price
$57.50

Held at the KBF Butterbox Theatre.

Crossing the Divide

Written, directed and performed by Sam Foster, Hayden Jones and Benjin Maza

Thursday 8 May, 11 am

A high school history class sets out on a two-day trek across the Great Dividing Range, learning about the expedition by Blaxland, Wentworth and Lawson. As the group travel, their guide Lionel draws their attention to what is often left out of the history books. They learn about some of the earliest interactions between Indigenous people and the colonial explorers, revealing some of this nation's difficult truths.

TAXIRIDE ft TTSAR

VIP
Packages
Available

Friday 30 May, 7:30 pm

Timeless Harmonies, Unforgettable Hits!

Born in the leafy green suburbs of Melbourne, Australia; and with vocal harmonies reminiscent of '60s bands Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young and The Beatles, TAXIRIDE ft TIM WATSON, TIM WILD, SEAN MCLEOD, ANDY MCIVOR & RIPLEY SMITH, blend retro sensibility with modern style.

Their debut album Imaginate debuted at Number 1 on the Australian Music Charts. It launched 4 singles including the memorable Get Set and Everywhere You Go (the most-played Australian song on radio for 2000 – written by Tim Wild and Tim Watson).

The second album Garage Mahal contained their biggest hit Creepin' Up Slowly, which was the most-played song on radio for 2002 and featured a further 2 hit singles. A 10-year hiatus saw TAXIRIDE ft TTSAR reform in 2015 with a limited run of shows.

With our exclusive VIP ticket, you'll enjoy a special meet-and-greet with the band after the show.

Held at the KBF Butterbox Theatre.
